

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, April 22. 1708.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 27.

Naples, April 3.

SEVERAL Persons having abus'd the Liberty allow'd them to come into this City, by endeavouring to excite or foment Troubles, a Proclamation has been publish'd forbidding all Masters of Feluccas and other Vessels to set ashore here or in other Parts of the Kingdom any Strangers, unless they have Passports from Cardinal Grimani or some other Minister of the House of Austria; or to take on board any Persons here without Passports from Count Thaur our Viceroy. The Princes of Castiglione and Cellamare, the Duke of Biffaccia, and other Noblemen that were Prisoners here, are gone from hence towards the Abruzzo, thence to be conducted to the Milaneze, accompany'd by several German Officers. General Werzel is set out from hence for Catalonia. Signior Aldobrandini the new Nuncio from the Pope, is arriv'd in this City. Eleven Persons are brought hither from the Abruzzo, accus'd of holding Intelligence with the Enemy. The Resident on the Part of the Elector Palatine has had an Audience of our Viceroy. We have receiv'd Advice from Malta, that 4 Turkish Men of War and 12 Gallies had appear'd off that Island, and 'twas apprehended would make some Attempt upon it.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated April 27.

Naples, April 3. Two Regiments of Imperial Horse are march'd from hence for the Milaneze, whither they conduct the Duke d'Escalona and several other Prisoners of State. Those 2 Regiments are to make the Campaign in Piemont, with other Imperial Troops, in Conjunction with the Forces of the Duke of Savoy. General Caraffa is on the March to Reggio in Calabria, with 2000 Imperials, for the Security of that Province. We begin to suffer anew by Scarcity of Corn; and 7 of the Feluccas which were sent to Apulia to fetch Corn, were cast away in a Storm; 30 Men of their Crews perish'd, but the rest sav'd themselves: 'Tis hop'd the rest of that Fleet, which were dispers'd by the Tempest, have joyn'd agen, and proceeded on their Voyage, with their 3 Convoys.

Rome, April 7. The Pope has assist'd at the Solemn Performance of all the Ceremonies observ'd here in the Passion Week; and particularly crept up the Scala Sancta on his Knees, with his Head uncover'd. The 3th Instant he was present at the Celebration of Mass in the Chappel of the Vatican by Cardinal Acciaioli Sub-dean of the Sacred College; and afterwards denounc'd Excommunication against all Hereticks, and bestow'd his Benediction on a Crowd of People who stood throng'd together in the Square before the Palace. That done, he went into a large Hall; where he wash'd the Feet of 12 poor Pilgrims, serv'd them at Table, and gave each of them a Garment of White Wollen Cloth, with 2 Medals, one of Gold, the other of Silver. This Court is very much alarm'd at the Advices they have receiv'd, that the Regency of the State of Milan have prohibited all Commerce with the Ecclesiastical State, and forbidden the paying of any Pension or Rent to the Pope or his Subjects, as long as his Holiness shall refuse to acknowledge the Princess of Wolfembuttel for Queen of Spain: And the Viceroy of Naples threatening to make the like Prohibition, divers Congregations have been held thereupon. A Ship from Malta is arriv'd Civita Vecchia, having on Board 18 Knights of Malta; and M. Sandre with 2 others of those Knights, are come hither with a Commission from the great Master of their Order, to desire Succours of the Pope against the Turks, if their Fleet should make any Attempt on that Island, as is apprehended.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 27.

Cadix, April 1. We expect with great Impatience the Arrival of the Flate Fleet, which we understand to be on their Way home. An Express from the Court of Madrid, has put a Stop for 14 Days to the Departure of the Florilla which is lading for new Spain. Provisions and Stores of War are Shipping off here, and we expect 1300 Men of the Body commanded by the Duke d'Offuna, which are to be transported to the Relief of Ceuta, which however 'tis fear'd will fall at last into the Hands of the King of Morocco, who is on the March in Person with a strong Army, to push on the Siege of that Place. A Report we had that the Fort of Mazalquivir was taken by Storm by the Algerines, is not confirm'd; on the contrary 'tis advis'd, that our Gallies and some French Ships have thrown Succours of Men, Provisions, and Ammunition into that Place.

Falmouth, April 17. Yesterday sail'd the 2 Fleets formerly mention'd for Milford and Newfoundland, with their Convoys. To Day came in here the Swallow from Dover, being appointed a Pacquet-boat to Lisbon. Put in the St. Jacob of and for Copenhagen, and the Mary of and for Zurichzee, both from Bourdeaux.

Plymouth, April 18. Yesterday came in the St. Peter of and for Dantzick, from Bourdeaux; and 2 Dutch Ships from Nantes and Rochel, all laden with Wine and Brandy.

Shields, April 17. Above 200 Sail of laden Colliers, part for the Coast, the rest for London, sail'd from hence Yesterday under Convoy of the Stunbulo and Newport.

Yarmouth, April 19. Yesterday pass'd through this Road and on the back of our Sands about 150 laden Colliers; and this Morning early the 6 Sail of Men of War with Commadore Walker joyn'd about 20 Sail of Men of War more, suppos'd to be Admiral Baker's Squadron from the Northward. They all sail'd from hence to the Southward.

Harwich, April 20. On Sunday came in the Swift from Cruising. Yesterday a Fleet of laden Colliers pass'd by for the River. All the Pacquet-Boats are on this Side, the Wind being contrary at N. E; and here remain 2 Mails for Holland.

Deale,

Deale, April 20. Her Majesty's Ships the Medway, Bedford, Berwick, Mary, Canterbury, Exeter, Monk, Augutte, Worcester, Salisbury, and Ludlow-Castle, sail'd last Night to the Westward. There remain in the Downs her Majesty's Ships the Shrewsbury, Anelope, Falkland, Salisbury-Prize, Chatham, and Hunter-Fireship.

La Personne designee, dans les Pages 27. & Suivantes, d'un Libelle Francois qui vient de paroître, Sous le Titre de, Nouveaux Memoires pour Servir a l'histoire des Camifards, croit être indifféremment obligée de déclarer, que les choses qui sont dites de ses pretendus Sentimens, Sur les Matieres essentielles de la Religion, dans une Lettre écrite de lui, inserée parmi les dit Memoires, Sont, tantot mechamment controuvées par un depite injuste, dont on sait la raison; tantot, m l rapportees, pour avoir été mal comprises. Il declare aussi, que, ni l'Auteur du Libelle, ni celui de la Lettre n'Offrent se faire connoître. S'ils demeurent cachez, se deboutant ainsi aux justes perils qui pourroient s'ensuivre, il croira avoir lieu de ne douter point, que les Personnes equitables ne los m tissent au rang des Calomnieux, & des Imposteurs. Son intention est de se justifier plus particulièrement: Cependant, il proteste, ici, qu'il abhorre les Sentimens detestables qui lui sont attribuez, par les Laches, & Injurieux Ennemis.

True Spectacles and Reading-Glasses made to the greatest Perfection, by the use of which young Persons may preserve their Sight to the greatest Age, and which from the Critical Channels of the Glafs and Truth or the Work supply the want of Natural strength, preserve and to assist the weakest Eyes to much as to render the Person capable of doing the finest of Work, and Reading the smallest Print. It is to be observ'd that a weak Sight suffers more in one year without then it will in 4 with the use of these Spectacles, they being ground on true Brass Tools, according to the approv'd Method of the Royal Society. But the common sort of Spectacles being ground on false Iron Tools, and made of a darkish or else of green Glafs, are so far from preserving that they are really injurious to the Sight. Telescopes made to so great a perfection that a small one for the Pocket will take in a larger Angle, discover things at the remotest distance, and make them appear as near as most of large common ones of 4 Foot long; by the assistance of which small Telescope you may tell what a Clock it is by such a Dial as Bow or St. James's above 2 Miles, and other Objects though at 20 or 30 Miles distance proportionable; it being the pleasantest and usefulest Instrument of this kind, and so esteem'd by Gentlemen that some have bought 2, 4, and 6, one after another. These with all sorts of Microscopes of the newest and best Improvement, Prospective-Glasses and other Curiosities, are Made and Sold by G. Willdey and T. Brandreth at the Archimedes and Globe in Ludgate-street, the corner next St. Paul's.

The first Plaster for Corns, which hath met with such Approbation, Published long before any other Counterfeits appear'd, was and still is Seal'd up with this Motto, Art finds Means.
